

November 10, 2017

CAMARILLO Acorn

Your Community Partner Since 2006

Undaunted

Spartan star leads undefeated football team into postseason — Page 23

Circulation 26,890 | www.theacornonline.com | Camarillo and the surrounding areas

A passport to a land of

IMAGINATION

PICTURE BOOKS—Camarillo residents, from left, Marlee Cole and Isabella Van Winkle, both 4, illustrate their own books at the eighth annual Children's Multicultural BookFest at Camarillo Community Center on Nov. 4. Visitors at the family event, hosted by Pleasant Valley Neighborhood for Learning, received passports to use as they "traveled" to various tents, where stories were read in English, Spanish and Chinese.

PAGE TURNER—Millie Wells, 9, a Camarillo Girl Scout Brownie, reads during the afternoon event that promoted literacy.

PULL UP A SEAT—Camarillo Girl Scouts Rachel Halpern, 16, and Megan Ortgies, 17, read to kids at the BookFest, which also featured crafts, therapy dogs, music and entertainment. Every child received a free book.

Photos by DIANNEAVERY/Acorn Newspapers

Media